

OVERVIEW

Mike is professional Energy Consultant, with over 10 years' experience of energy consultancy, management and compliance.

He has extensive experience in managing and reducing energy and carbon use in buildings, estates and infrastructure.

Mike is currently acting as an embedded resource at Birmingham Airport responsible for energy monitoring, targeting and reporting, Carbon Management Plan, CRC compliance, implementation of sub-metering programme and behavioural change initiatives. Project management of energy saving schemes introducing low and zero carbon technologies.

Mike is an accredited ESOS Lead Assessor and managed the compliance process of energy reporting, conducting energy audits and identifying energy saving opportunities for a variety of clients across a wide range of industries including retail, entertainment, warehousing, manufacturing and automotive.

He has previously worked with Thames Water, Atkins and The Carbon Trust.

- BSc (Hons), MEI, ESOS Lead Assessor, BREEAM Assessor, DEC Assessor
- Providing energy efficiency advice
- Energy surveys and audits
- Carbon management
- Carbon footprinting
- Energy monitoring and targeting
- Energy reporting, analysis and compliance
- TRAIID avoidance and demand response schemes
- Project management of energy saving schemes
- Funding advice for energy saving projects