

OVERVIEW

Max will be working with LCMB to gain knowledge and experience in consultancy for all aspects of their offering including Facilities Management, Project Management, and Energy Management.

His initial role at LCMB will be to assist the Senior Consultants in providing services, simultaneously learning about the industry as he does.

Max's role at LCMB is to support the team to deliver all consultancy projects, including Facilities management, Project Management and Energy Management for our clients.

His ambition is to become a senior consultant himself and LCMB are supporting him to learn about consultancy, the wider industry, and how to support clients in a cost-effective way that makes the highest impact.
